Afternoon Take you to Tha Pom Klong Song Nam. It is located at Khao Khram

Subdistrict, Mueang District, under the supervision of the Khao Khram Subdistrict Administrative Organization. It is an ecological study site to learn about the integrity of nature in terms of both groundwater and the flora that can grow in both water and land. Khlong Song Nam has a unique ecosystem that during the 12th lunar month to the 5th lunar month when the sea rises, which the locals call "big water". The seawater will rise deep into the Tha Pom Canal to the swimming pavilion and mix with the fresh water in the Tha Pom Canal to become a brackish water canal that is somewhat cloudy, but it is not long after that the seawater will recede and was replaced by fresh, clear, green water formed by streams. It originates from limestone hills that contain calcium carbonate that has the property of binding sediment and suspension to sink when water flows through the limestone. Another charm of Tha Pom is tree roots, we invite you to look everywhere along the banks of the canal. Many tree roots adapt by emergence and breathing. For anyone who wants to experience the wonders of nature of the forest of Tha Pom in a different feeling than walking on the bridge, you can canoe to admire the beauty of Khlong Song Nam and Tha Pom forest. Then take you to Baan Ton Mai Cafe' It's a cafe in the middle of nature surrounded by greenery. When walking into the shop, you will find a garden of various types of ornamental plants. Coffee lovers must like it because there is Slow Bar Coffee, a chill coffee brewing zone that has just opened. We can start brewing ourselves at every step. For anyone who likes to eat, there is a variety of food to choose from. Then take you to see the sunset at Ao Nang Beach, located in

Hat Nopparat Thara-Mu Ko Phi Phi National Park, Ao Nang Subdistrict, Mueang District, Krabi Province. It is another important tourist attraction of Krabi province because of its beautiful beaches, tourist shopping, and a jetty that can go directly to the islands nearby as well making it is the main destination of any trip to Krabi.
