monarch of Phu Kam Yao during the years 1801-1841, which was a very prosperous era. Most importantly, he is a water companion. Swear an oath to King Mengrai of Chiang Rai and Pho Khun Ramkhamhaeng of Sukhothai, where all three of them performed their faithfulness to each other at the Ing River, which is the area of the present Phayao Inland Fishery Station. Wherever the sun is begging, the rain is pitted. It will give the sun, the sun, to grind and grind," hence the name "Muang," and on March 5 of every year there will be a ceremony Pay homage to King Ngam Muang. Take you to Wat Sri Khom Kham, located on the bank of Phayao Kwan, Muang District, Phayao Province, which is the most famous temple in Phayao, built around the 20th century, enshrining King Ton Luang biggest buddha and the oldest in the land Lanna "Wat Sri Khom Kham" is the official name, but the villagers in general still call it by the former name. Wat Phra Chao Ton Luang or Wat Thung Liang because there is a large Buddha image Is the president of the temple with a history appearing according to legends related to the coming of the Lord Buddha as well as showing the prophecy about the creation of Lord Ton Luang. in the area that is Nong lang Assumed that Wat Sri The lantern was built around 1524 after a large Buddha image was built. which is now commonly known as "Phra Chao Ton Luang" for this King Ton Luang It is a bronze Buddha image in the attitude of subduing Mara. Wichai lap width 14x16 meters, currently enshrined as the presiding Buddha image in Viharn Luang is presumed to have been built around the year 2034 in the reign of Phraya Muang. rule the city of Phayao (In the period of Phra Yod Chiang Rai The 13th King of the Mangrai dynasty of Chiang Mai) later in the reign of Phraya Viceroy Chao Burirat Construction of the temple, various seats and subsequently set up as a temple in the reign of Phraya rule the city of Phayao Phayao people regard it as a sacred Buddha image in Thailand. the sixth month of every year there will be Worship of King Ton Luang.

At noon Have lunch at a restaurant

In the afternoon Take you to Kwan Phayao in Muang Phayao District, Phayao Province. The largest freshwater lake is the 1st in the North and the 4th largest in Thailand. The word "Kwan" in the native language means "bung". Kwan Phayao is therefore a marsh. The vastness as far as the eye can see, encompassing the mountain of Doi Mae Chai, located majestically in the west. In the evening and early in the morning the colors of the sky and the lines are as beautiful as a painting. It is a picture of the impressive atmosphere that I have seen when come to visit this city of Phayao Rim Chai Kwan Road in the city of Phayao, where one side is open, Phayao has coconut trees. Lined up, creating an atmosphere like a seaside town. People come to relax, sit and eat, some take a walk and enjoy the view. Ride a bicycle and exercise while enjoying the view of the Buddha image. The sunsets over the calm waters. If visiting on weekends, Rim Kwan restaurants are also booked tourists who sit and eat and drink Taste local food such as grilled fish, grilled shrimp, and dancing shrimp, which are lined up in many shops. early morning in the area Rim Kwan Pier There will be people sitting in rows preparing to make rice sticky into small lumps to wait for the monks daily Tourists can buy rice dishes, including glutinous rice in a bowl, to offer food to monks here. At about 7:00 a.m., monks will walk to receive alms in a line. Before sitting in place prepared to pray and bless those who come to make merit for good fortune. After making merit and offering food to monks, tourists can take a rowboat to worship. Luang Pho Sila Klang Kwan Phayao has life jackets for tourists to wear for safety. It takes about 20 minutes to go back and forth. "Luang Por Sila" is a Buddha image. The sandstone subduing Mara, over 500 years old, was discovered in 1983 in the area of Wat Ti, a submerged monastery in the world. Therefore, the villagers were summoned to be enshrined at Wat Si Umong Kham until 2007, so they were summoned Luang Pho Sila returned to enshrine. The area where the temple is located in the middle of Kwan Phayao for tourists to take a boat to worship and to promote tourism on the water of Phayao city after seeing the view of Kwan Phayao and take you on a boat Go to Wat Tilok Monastery. It is a temple that is submerged in water, therefore travel by boat One evidence that Kwan Phayao area in the past It is an ancient community, which is this ancient site that is more than 500 years old, and from the stone inscriptions excavated around the temple, Lok Monastery indicated that this temple was a temple that King Tilok, the Lanna Kingdom, Chiang Mai. Graciously ordered Phraya Yuthithara, the city of Phayao, to be built around the year 2019-2029, which is likely to cause the ancient community at that time. Later, in 1939, the Department of Fisheries built a barricade in Kwan Phayao to store water which eventually resulted in many temples being drowned, including this Tilok Monastery. with the need to drown. In Phayao Kwan for more than 68 years, the province of Phayao has summoned Luang Pho Sila. Wat Tilok Aram came to be enshrined at the same point in the middle of Kwan Phayao. So that people and tourists can take a boat to pay respect to this Buddha image while enjoying the beautiful scenery. especially on important days In Buddhism, namely Makha Bucha Day, Visakha Bucha Day, and Asana Bucha Day. Tourists who Visit here will be able to see the candle-lighting around Phra That Chedi Wat Tilok Monastery in the Kwan Klang, Phayao, which is regarded as a candle-making activity in the middle. the only one in the world.

In the evening Have dinner at a restaurant. After finishing your meal, you will return to M2Hotel. invite you to rest at your leisure.

Third day, Wat Phra That Chom Thong – Souvenir shop in Phayao City – Bangkok

In the morning Have breakfast at the hotel restaurant. After finishing your meal, you can store your luggage for check out. Take you to Wat Phra That Chom Thong, located in Ban Tom Subdistrict, Mueang Phayao District, Phayao Province. It is important to enshrine Phra That Chom Thong inside will be packed with Hair relics and Buddha's right arm relics, but there is no evidence that this relic was built when, but it has been restored many times. Phra That Chom Thong is a glittering brass color located on Doi Chom Thong. It is a Lanna-style chedi, 30 meters high, located on a square base, 9 meters wide, overlapping three floors. The top of the top is a golden tier. The base around it is lined with metal plates, depicting the 12 zodiac signs and beautiful Thai patterns. There is a story that in the Buddha's time, the Lord Buddha used to propagate Buddhism in Phu Kam Yao and settled on a mountain located on the northern bank of Nong Lieng, that is, Doi Chom Thong, where the relics are located. Chomthong itself. Therefore, His Highness gave the hair relics to King Asoka, whose hair relics were buried in a pond more than 70 meters deep, and then built a chedi over it. together to restore the relics. It is a relic that we have seen until today. In addition, on top of Wat Phra That Chom Thong, there is also a beautiful view because it is an area of the forest as an arboretum which can see the view of Phayao city and Kwan Phayao.
