Day 1 Don Mueang International Airport – Trang Airport – Peninsular Botanical Garden (Thung Khai)– Phraya Ratsadanupradit Mahison Phakdi Museum - Kantang Railway Station - Trang Clock Tower - Trang Walking Street (-/-/-)

05.00 Assemble at Don Mueang International Airport. The staff will welcome and facilitate you.

07.00 Take you to Trang Airport by Thai Lion Air, flight SL824. The flight would take around 1 hour 25 minutes.

08.25 Arrive at Trang Airport and pick up luggage. Then take you to have breakfast at the restaurant.

10.00 Take you to Peninsular Botanical Garden \(Thung Khai\). It is located in Thung

Khai Subdistrict, Yan Ta Khao District, Trang Province.

It is a wide forest that gathers various local plants. It collected outstanding local plants of the southern region for you to see. A highlight that should not miss when coming here is to walk and admire the view of the tops of the trees on the bridge. There are many heights, which are connected by 6 plant viewing towers. There is also the area of the swamp forest where you can walk on a walkway that looks like a bridge straddling the wetlands. There is a treetop bridge path to study the surrounding nature. The bridge is 175 meters long and has 3 levels of height, from 10 meters to 18 meters. This route can see the forest up close, even wildlife such as birds, squirrels, chipmunks, and monkeys. If you want to see the beautiful green of the trees, you must come during the months of Feb.-May, which is the spring season. The trees are blooming with beautiful leaves.

Noon Lunch at the restaurant.

Afternoon Take you to Phraya Ratsadanupradit Mahison Phakdi Museum. It is located on Na Khai Road, about 200 meters from Kantang Municipality. It is the location of one of the important historical sites of Trang, “Juan Old City Ruler” or the old governor's residence. Phraya Ratsadanupradit Mahisorn Phakdi is a 2 floors wooden house with wax statues and tools used in daily life.

The heirs of the Na Ranong family are the caretakers.

Kantang people and Kantang municipality have the opinion that this house is important historical evidence that should be preserved, thus they changed it into a museum that shows the life and works of Phraya Ratsada for the people of Trang to study. They asked for permission to use it as a memorial to commemorate Phraya Ratsada's contributions and asked to use it as a museum.

Tato Bienjong allowed Trang Province to use this house as a museum on September 10, 1992, called Phraya Ratsadanupradit Mahison Phakdi Museum (Kho Simbi Na Ranong). Then take you to Kantang

Railway Station. It is located on Kantang Subdistrict, Kantang District, Trang Province. It is the last railway station of the Andaman Sea Southern Railway. Kantang Railway Station is a single-floor, cantilever-shaped wooden building

Painted in mustard yellow and brown, which is the familiar color pairing of conventional railway buildings. The building is divided into two parts: the building and the platform. The front of the building has a cantilevered porch decorated with the corners of the pillars with an original identity from the reign of King Rama VII. It was registered as an ancient monument by the Fine Arts Department. After that, take you to take photos with Trang Clock Tower. It is considered another unique identity of Trang. It's located in front of the city hall. At present, the Trang Municipality has renovated the street scenery surrounding the clock tower beautifully to make this a tourist attraction to visit the beauty of Trang in the evening. Even though Trang Clock Tower has been changed many times, it is still beautiful in its original form. It is no surprise that it is a landmark for taking photos and seeing the city because it has the most classic feel. It's like slipping into the '60s. Anyone who visits Trang, don't forget to check in and take photos here.

Evening Take you to Trang Walking Street. It is another interesting shopping center in Trang Province. The Tourism Authority of Thailand of Trang provides a walking street market in front of the Trang Railway Station with the cute name "Chan Chala Night Market".

It looks like a mini-market. It starts selling in the evening until late at night. The busiest time to walk around is from 6:00 PM. to 7:00 PM. Dinner as you like.

20.00 Take you to check-in at Thumrin Thana Hotel or equivalent hotel.

Day 2 Pak Meng Dock – Koh Muk – Emerald Cave – Koh Kradan – Koh Chueak - Pak Meng Dock

Morning Breakfast at the hotel's dining room. Then take you to Pak Meng Dock.

09.30 The boat leaves the pier heading to Koh Mook, one of the Unseen in Thailand.

Arrive at Koh Mook, then float into the Emerald Cave, where the entrance to the cave is a small hollow, high above the water level enough for a boat to pass through, but we will line up for a distance of 80 meters. At the entrance of the cave, there is an external light reflecting the water inside the cave, making the water appear emerald green. After leaving the mouth of the cave, you will see a clean white sand beach surrounded by cliffs. The sky looks like a volcanic crater. It is a miracle that nature has created surrounded by cliffs. The sky looks like a volcanic crater. It is a miracle that nature has created.

Take you to Koh Kradan. It is an island with the most beautiful beaches of the Trang Sea. It is located in Ko Libong Subdistrict, Kantang District. It is used as a popular underwater wedding venue in Trang. The sandy beaches here are white and smooth and the water is clear and beautiful. Moreover, there are shallow coral reefs that stretch in a long line: brain corals, staghorn corals, red thorn soft coral, and many other kinds of fish.

Noon Buffet lunch on board

Afternoon

The boats parked in front of the national park of Koh Kradan point 1. You can experience powdery white sand and crystal clear water until you can see coral reefs stretching from the north beach to the coast and watch the colorful fish swim beautifully. Then the boat brings customers to dive together at Koh Kradan point 2nd and watch the colorful fish that come out to welcome tourists.

After that, take you to Koh Chueak. It located between Koh Mook and Koh Ngai, both islands are considered the most beautiful coral reef diving spots of the

Trang Sea

where you can see soft corals

of red,

orange, purple, yellow, pink, etc. Koh Chuek is a small island. The islands are surrounded by Koh Mook and Koh Kradan. It is the three bird's nest concession island, about 4 kilometers from Koh Ngai. It is characterized by rocks and sheer cliffs, with no beaches or people's homes and fishermen live on the three islands. In addition to the huts of the bird's nest keepers planted on the rocks around the island. The area around the three islands is a dive site to see various types of coral reefs. There are both shallow and deep water corals around. There are many kinds of colorful marine fish such as parrotfish, nori fish, angelfish, tiger fish.

16.00 Back to Pak Meng Dock. Then take you to have dinner at the restaurant.
