Morning Have breakfast at the hotel restaurant. After the meal, take you to Lap-Lae City

Gate the city arch is considered a landmark that everyone must visit. Besides the arch, there is a sculpture of a widow. Another symbol of Lap-Lae City was a statue of a woman standing holding a baby with a sad expression on her face. besides her husband, sitting with his neck slumped in his hand holding a bag of turmeric, preparing to travel from the Lap-Lae text inscription area. "Just asking for the truth" represents the legend of Lap-Lae City, which tells the story of a widow who is willing to sacrifice in order to maintain the city's rules of law that the city must not lie. and take you for a walk Lap-Lae City Museum In the Lap-Lae District Uttaradit

It is a place that collects stories about the history of the city, the way of life, and customs of the people of Lap-Lae City. By modeling through each house, Lap-Lae is a small district. One is in Uttaradit Originally, it was a city where traveling was not easy. The winding path makes it easy for people who are not proficient at straying. Until recently, it was called Lap-Lae City, which means invisible. It is said that only people with merit can reach Lap-Lae City. But now there is a road that cuts through the forest. So the mystery of the city disappeared. And there are many legends that mention the city of Lap-Lae.

Then take you to Wat Don Sak, located at Ban Fai Luang, Lap-Lae District. There is a highlight at the Viharn built in the Ayutthaya period. The door is beautifully carved in a crossed Kanok Kankhod pattern. It consists of a swan, Thep Phanom image, and a giant. The door is carved out of wood. Kanok Kankhod pattern.

There are Himmapan creatures inserted in various Kanok patterns. Delicate, very beautiful. But the patterns that bloom on the left and right are different. But when the door is closed, the pattern fits perfectly. It is a pair of wooden doors engraved in the ancient Ayutthaya period. Let me tell you that this is another unseen in Uttaradit Province that you must see with your own eyes.

Noon Lunch at the restaurant

Afternoon Take you to Wat Thong Lap Lae, an old temple in Tambon Fai Luang. What is interesting is the "upside-down reflection" of the recitation pavilion on the opposite side that appears on the wall in the ubosot. Phra Somchai, who came to be ordained at the temple in 2011, found the picture as he entered the church with the doors and windows closed. The moment to clearly view the inverted image is On a sunny day, between 13:00 and 16:00, inside the church, there are murals depicting legends and lifestyles of the Lap-Lae people. There is a story that Dr. Phumin, a dentist from Chiang Mai dreamed of seeing Prince Ham Kumar. The first king of the secret city said An upside-down image was found inside the church. So the doctor came to prove it and saw the image appear as Prince Ham had in his dreams. Therefore, he had faith and built a glass pagoda next to the Ubosot There is also an ancient temple in the middle of the water that is hundreds of years old. It is assumed that it was built in the Ayutthaya period.

Then take you on a journey to the Teen Jok Thai-Yuan Cloth Museum. It is a learning center that transfers the wisdom of Tin Jok Thai-Yuan weaving to the next generation. To promote and upgrade tourism in Lap-Lae District to be a tourism center It started from "Kru Joe" who was born in a Thai-Yuan family where every woman had to weave cloth for generations to come. He has taken his mother as an inspiration. Even if a secretive forbids men from weaving, with love for the beauty of Sarong Tin Jok, he uses the teacher's method to rest and remember. Learn about every process before collecting the Ban Khum and Ban Na Talay weaving groups, Lap-Lae district, Uttaradit province. and established the Tin

Jok Thai-Yuan Silk Museum, Lap-Lae to tell the wisdom of the life of Sao Lap-Lae through the Tin Jok sarong. Exquisite indigenous fabrics interpolated with attitudes and beliefs add imagination through ancient patterns. A 5-star OTOP award has been guaranteed and presented to Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn. Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn annually. This is a museum exhibiting old fabrics that are over a hundred years old. and applied local fabrics that fit the era. The basement of the house is where the weaving loom is not used, and weavers must use both skill and expertise to memorize patterns that truly reflect the identity of the Lap-Lae people, including helping to distribute income to the community for more than 100 local people, then take you to Wat Phra Thaen Sila. It is located at the top of Turtle hill. There is a temple that houses the Asana stone altar, an important precursor of Uttaradit, which is made of laterite. It is rectangular, 8 feet wide, 10 feet long, and 3 feet high. The base of the altar is decorated with beautiful lotus petal designs. It is believed that If you have come to worship the stone altar will receive the highest merit, including within the temple's local museum in the old sermon hall decorated in Lanna style, which displays stories about the way of life of the palace people and villagers in the past, including various tools from the past for us to see as well.

Evening Take you to Wat Phra Borommathat Thung Yang Another significant temple in Thung Yang Town, which is located within the Lap-Lae District. It is assumed that it was built in the late Sukhothai period, during the reign of King Maha Thammaracha I or Phraya Lithai. The Ayutthaya period was made of laterite and bricks. The roof is cascaded down 3 floors, the gable is carved with lacquer and gilded, very beautiful.
