To Whom It May Concern:

The Asia Baptist Graduate Theological Seminary is a consortium of the following schools of Theology in the Asia-Pacific Rim:

Baptist Theological Seminary of Indonesia, Semarang,
Baptist Theological Seminary, Singapore,
Korea Baptist Theological Seminary, Taejeon,
Seinan Gakuin University Graduate School, Japan,
Philippine Baptist Theological Seminary, Baguio City,
Taiwan Baptist Theological Seminary, Taipei, and Thailand Baptist Theological Seminary, Bangkok

The graduate school was established in 1960 following the educational standards set by the "Association of Theological Schools and Colleges in the United States and Canada." This standard continues to be the guiding instrument by which the academic performance of the school is judged. The Dean and President conduct annual reviews of each Area Learning Center (partnership school). In accordance with this review the Bachelor of Theology (B.Th.), the Master of Christian Studies (M.C.S.) and the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree programs of the Thailand Baptist Theological Seminary in Bangkok, Thailand meet admission standards in both scope and content of their programs for the Asia Baptist Graduate Theological Seminary.

Sincerely,

Graham B. Walker, Jr., Ph.D.
President
Asia Baptist Graduate Theological Seminary
