

“British people may be like Thai people” and “There are only bad people in this world”

(I wrote My thoughts from 31 September 2022 to 2 October 2022, and posted them on My website on 2 October 2022)

Now, I thought “British people may be like Thai people” and “There are only bad people in this world”.

Why I thought “British people may be like Thai people”?

It is because on 30 September 2022 at around 11:00 am, I was controlled to ask Myself “Or British people may be like Thai people?”, and then I asked Myself “Who deceived Princess Diana “Camilla is the first love of Prince Charles. And Prince Charles still loves Camilla”?”

After that, The God told Me “Princess Diana’s sister”. Then, I thought “I don’t know much about siblings of Princess Diana”. Later on, The God told Me “Princess Diana’s sister who used to get close King Charles. Her name is “Sarah””

The God told Me “Sarah thought “I’d gotten close Prince Charles before Diana. Why Prince Charles chose Diana, and Diana will become a princess and the queen?” Sarah can’t stand to see Lady Diana become a princess. However, Princess Diana thought optimistically (as she was so young) “Sarah is my sister. She’s trustworthy. She wishes me the best. She won’t lie to me surely!””

I am not sure but The God told Me “Sarah has been in the overthrow gang and was one of the people whom Princess Diana consulted “the problems in her marriage life” to!”

After The God had told the truths of Sarah to Me, The God told Me “Kay. Pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty allowed Me (The God) to tell the truths of Sarah to You because: 1) You’ve thought “British people and western people are better than Thai people!” And 2) Pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty have prepared for blackening The British Monarchy, British people, and western people!”

Whereas, behaviours and habits of Sarah are like Nok and all Thai people. The God told Me many times “After Nok knew the truths of You and Prince William, Nok has enviously thought “Kay will become a princess and the queen. What else I will get because I was born?”

Besides Sarah, how about other British people? I told Prince William in a document which I sent to him “Whom Princess Diana usually listened to while she was being in the palace?”

Behaviours and habits of “some people” in the palaces are like behaviours and habits of all Thai people such as wishing others maliciously, loving to set people by the ears, loving to stab into other’s back, loving to see disasters and misfortunes of others, and loving to see others get hurt.

How about Camilla and Andrew Parker Bowles, James Lifford Hewitt, and Kate Middleton and her family?

How about the UK Prime Ministers?

How about high-level British soldiers?

How about high-level Scotland Yards?

And how about British journalists and British critics in the UK?

I told everyone many times “All Thai people cannot stand good people and better people. One of their habits is that trying to change other people who are good or better than them to be “the worst” the same as them. And they have extremely tormented Me to die because of their thought “Because You’re the best, so You’ve deserved it right!””

However, I reminded all British people of “10 Principles almost all Christians use to lead their lives” many times. I told all British people “One of the western cultures isn’t envy, but it’s admiring good people, better people, and successful people. This’s a main reason why before 2000, their countries were developed and civilized” And I have jockeyed the song “Fkin’ Perfect” more than 100 times too.

I used to believe “British people are extremely different from Thai people. So, The God chose England to be My motherland.” But now, after I found the truths of Sarah, “some people” in the palaces, the UK Prime Ministers, high-level British soldiers, high-level Scotland Yards, British journalists in the UK, and British critics in the UK, I started to ask Myself ...

“If British people do not love to lie to others, if British people do not love to hurt others by their words (gossip, rumours, and/or provocation), if British people do not love to set people by the ears, if British people do not love to stab into others’ back and betray, if British people are not two-faced and hypocrite, if British people do not love to pretend and fake,
 if British people are not cheat and tricky, if British people do not adore “money” more than “goodness” and “bravery”, if “Friend” for British people does not mean benefit and social appearance, if “Love and Marriage” for British people does not mean social appearance, suitability of financial status, money, benefit, position, career advancement, a better life, sexual activities, and/or promiscuous if British people can stand good people, better people, and successful people, if British people are not envious people, if British people do not wish others maliciously, if British people do not love to see disasters and misfortunes of others, if British people do not love to separate soulmates to break their love down, if British people do not love to see others get hurt, if British people are not wicked and brutal, if British people are not selfish and ready to do anything to manage to survive even the dirtiest tricks,
 and if British people do something wrong, they do not excuse, but dare to confess their own guilt,

why do not British people know “The desires and the emotions I have felt are not my own desires and emotions”? Why cannot you all figure out “These are the desires and the emotions of all Thai people”?

As a result, although The God has told Me
 “There are only some foreigners
 whose natures are like all Thai people”, should I think “British people may be like Thai people”?

Why I thought “There are only bad people in this world”?

I told everyone many times “After I had graduated bachelor degree in 1997, I requested My angel who directs to The God to start My new life abroad. At that time, My aims were “the US, the UK, New Zealand, or Australia” However, The God did not allow Me to start My new life abroad. The God told Me “Kay, I didn’t allow You to start Your new life abroad after You had graduated bachelor degree in 1997 because if You had a chance to spend Your new life abroad, You would know “Here is better than Thailand”, and You would find a way to be a citizen of that country and would not come back to Thailand. So, after Ratchaneewan Ad-harn, Ad-harn family, pimp king Bhumibol, and the satanic Chakri dynasty had known the truths of You, Prince William, and Your Missions, they would plan to blacken the country where You lived Your new life by tricking the government and the people of that country into detaining You in that country. And last, they would succeed in throwing their all guilts on the country where You lived Your new life!”

I told you, at that time, My aims were “the US, the UK, New Zealand, or Australia”

I mean that I have been severely tormented to die since the end of November 1999 to protect and to save the US, the UK, New Zealand, Australia, Japan, South Korea, India, and other countries where pimp king Bhumibol, the satanic Chakri dynasty, all Thai people, and Thailand have planned to throw their guilts on.

You all knew how I felt about all Americans, the US, and foreigners especially “the white” ...

... But what the US Government, numerous Americans, and “the white” who live in the US have done to Me? How about Amway, Carrier, Coke, Bill Gates, Larry Page, Mark Zuckerberg, Sergey Brin, Hala Gorani, Colleen McEdwards, Angelina Jolie, Katie Holmes, Mariah Carey, Taylor Swift, Meghan Markel, Colin Powell, and the US Presidents since JFK was assassinated?

How about the UK Prime Ministers, high-level British soldiers, high-level Scotland Yards, “some people” in the UK palaces, British journalists in the UK, and British critics in the UK since the end of November 1999?

How about Jacinda Ardern and the Prime Ministers of New Zealand since the end of November 1999?

How about Julia Gillard and the Prime Ministers of Australia since the end of November 1999?

How about Samsung and the new generation of South Korean?

How about scores of Indians all over the world?

And how about king Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud (The king of Saudi Arabia), king Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa (The king of Bahrain), sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani (The king of Qatar), queen Charlene of Monaco, queen Maxima of The Netherlands, queen Letizia of Spain, queen Jetsun of The Kingdom of Bhutan, princess Mary of Denmark, Xi Jin-ping, Vladimir Putin, and Kim Jong-un?

So, I would like to say it again ...

I told everyone many times “All Thai people cannot stand good people and better people. One of their habits is that trying to change other people who are good or better than them to be “the worst” the same as them. And they have extremely tormented Me to die because of their thought “Because You’re the best, so You’ve deserved it right!””

I reminded all western people and all Christians of “10 Principles almost all Christians use to lead their lives” many times. I told them “One of the western cultures isn’t envy, but it’s admiring good people, better people, and successful people. This’s a main reason why before 2000, their countries were developed and civilized” And I have jockeyed the song “Fkin’ Perfect” more than 100 times too.

I used to think “Western people and Christians are better than Thai people” But now, after I found the truths of the US, many western people, many of “the white”, and many Christians, I started to ask Myself ...

“If western people and Christians do not love to lie to others, if western people and Christians do not love to hurt others by words (gossip, rumours, and/or provocation), if western people and Christians do not love to set people by the ears, if western people and Christians do not love to stab into others’ back and betray,
 if western people and Christians are not two-faced and hypocrite, if western people and Christians do not love to pretend and fake, if western people and Christians are not cheat and tricky, if western people and Christians do not adore “money” more than “goodness” and “bravery”, if “Friend” for western people and Christians does not mean benefit and social appearance, if “Love and Marriage” for western people and Christians does not mean social appearance, suitability of financial status, money, benefit, position, career advancement, a better life, sexual activities, and/or promiscuous, if western people and Christians can stand good people, better people, and successful people,
 if western people and Christians are not envious people, if western people and Christians do not wish others maliciously, if western people and Christians do not love to see disasters and misfortunes of others,
 if western people and Christians do not love to separate soulmates to break their love down,
 if western people and Christians do not love to see others get hurt, if western people and Christians are not wicked and brutal, if western people and Christians are not selfish and ready to do anything to manage to survive even the dirtiest tricks,
 and
 if western people and Christians do something wrong, they do not excuse, but dare to confess their own guilt, why do not western people and Christians know “The desires and the emotions I have felt are not my own desires and emotions”? Why cannot you all figure out “These are the desires and the emotions of all Thai people”?

As a result, although The God has told Me
 “There are only some foreigners
 whose natures are like all Thai people”, should I think “There are only bad people in this world”?

Remark: One of the natures of all Thai people is “lazy”, but I did not ask British people, western people, and Christians “If you are not lazy, why do not you know ...?” because The God told Me “To change behaviours and habits of foreigners to be “lazy” the same as all Thai people, pimp king Bhumibol, the satanic Chakri dynasty, and all Thai people have ordered Me (The God) to make the foreigners cannot sleep periodically” And I understood that humans who are lack of rest really want to sleep. So, I did not ask you “If you are not lazy, why do you know ...?” 😊😊.
