

I do not believe in love

(I wrote this script on 20 April 2023 at night but posted it on My website on 21 April 2023 in the morning.)

In this video clip, I would like foreign people especially good foreign creative people and the white to know that now, I do not believe in love. For almost all men, love means beautiful women and having sex. Nobody loves a woman who is old, very fat, ugly, usually farts, and eat a lot. So, although I am The Daughter of The Father Almighty and I have requested others to help Me and My parents to survive, because I am very ugly like a dirty pig, so nobody listens to Me and help Me.

Whereas, one of My teachings about love is that for love, one feels, but for marriage, one has to use his brain to carefully consider before make up his mind to marry.

Thank you very much, sir.
