

I extended the time

(I wrote these promises, and posted them on My website for the first time on 26 April 2023 when was My Dad's 77th birthday ☺☺. But I updated them, and posted them on My website again on 27 April 2023 in the morning.)

Because The Father Almighty told Me “Kay, The British Monarchy is waiting for 6 May 2023 when will be The Coronation Day of King Charles III of The British Monarchy to complete law process” And “After the harlots will have been fired out of their positions and the palaces, Will will quickly call You”, so after I had carefully considered, I made up My mind to extend the time I set the deadline up for Prince William to call Me from 7 May 2023 to 12 May 2023.

If Prince William call Me within 12 May 2023 and confirm;

“I never love Kate”

“I never love Rose”

“I never have sex with any women”

“Since I met You, I have only You in My heart”

“I will not definitely make You hurt or anguished again”

“If You marry me, I will have You as the only one wife forever” And

“If You marry me, I will make You and Your parents happy forever”,

I will believe in the words of Prince William. And if Daddy Almighty wants, I will have had wedding ceremony with Prince William before we will fly to The Holy Home.

However, refer to how My autonomic nervous system works, please do not let Me wait for so long because pimp king Bhumibol, the satanic Chakri dynasty, and all Thai people have prepared to provoke Me. And while I am waiting, My mind is so much stress in that My mind automatically think “Or I am fooled again!”

Last, Will, I am waiting for writing “wedding vow” for our wedding ceremony with you together ☺☺.
