

Lying

(The God told Me in the middle of August 2022)
(I wrote these truths from 16 August 2022 to 17 August 2022, and posted them on My website on 17 August 2022)

The God told Me in the middle of August 2022 “Kay, I (The God) will not tell Will “You were fooled into waiting for The Judgement of Jesus in the current millennium. I (The God) will let Will know this truth by himself. Because pimp king Bhumibol, the satanic Chakri dynasty, Ratchaneewan Ad-harn, Ad-harn family, almost all Thai, and all evil foreign people do not let anyone who knew the truths tell the truths to Will but You, so We will show everyone “If one lies to others, sooner or later, the others will know the truth “He lied to me (or us)””

Why We want to show this truth?

It is because The God truly wants each person in the new wonderful world not to lie to others but to be honest person.

Why one must not lie to others but must be honest?

From the truths in the first paragraph, could you all noticed something happened after 22 years had passed? Now, some Christians and some Muslims started to know the truths “We were fooled into waiting”, and innumerable Christians and numerous Muslims started to hesitate “Or we are being fooled into waiting the same as Kay has tried to tell us”? As a result, the reasons why one must not lie to others but must be honest are not only because “all liars” will be brought to be violently tormented in merciless states where are called “hell” and “the eternal flame” in life after death but also because of one’s living in this life.

Let Me explain more;

If you are a kid or a teenager and you usually lie to others like one of Aesop’s Fables “A Wolf and a Shepherd”, your image will be “a liar”, right? You do not know what the future will bring, right? So, if in the future, you become an adult who need much credit to live for your life, but your image has been “a liar” since you were a kid or a teenager, how difficult to erase your “permanent image” from your life? Why will not people who want your credit think “He has practiced to be “a liar” since he was a kid (or a teenager), now how excellent in lying he will be?”? ...

... Or if in the future, you become a famous person such as a superstar, but your image has been “a liar” since you were a kid or a teenager, how will people who started to follow your brilliant performance feel? ...

... Or if your soulmate is a member of a big conservative family, how will other members of the family feel about you if you have been “a liar” since you were a kid or a teenager? ...

... Or if you grow up and fall in love with a perfect millionaire who is your soulmate but he is an anti-liar, how can the millionaire accept and trust you as his spouse all his heart? So that, how your marriage life will be? And how can you teach your children to be honest? Please carefully think through: How will your feelings be if other moral parents know that your children love to lie to others because you are their “role model”? ...

... Or if your soulmate is a member of a virtuous royal family, and you will become a member of the royal family, but your image has been “a liar” since you were a kid or a teenager, how will other members of the royal family feel about you? And how can citizens of the country of the royal family accept you as their Royal Highness? ...

... No one knows the future but The God, right?

In the same way, if you are an adult and you usually lie to others, why do you think no one else can catch up your lie? And how will a person who can catch up your lie will feel about you? Nowadays, information is moved very quickly. If you want to work for a big reliable company, but they have information that you are not a trustworthy person as you usually lie to others, how can you get that job? Or if you want to run your own business but lying to others is one of your habits, how your credit in thoughts of others will be? Or what will happen if you stand a chance to play politics? A truth is that you will miss a good opportunity in your life or will not, it is up to not only your ability and potential but your credit also.

Think twice: How bad you will feel when you can catch up that your close people lie to you? And if you lie to your close people, your close people will feel the same as you when you can catch up that they lie to you. Could you imagine if you become a grandparent but you still usually lie to others and your grandchildren can catch up your lie, how will your grandchildren feel about you? Do not you want to be “a trustworthy grandparent” “a hero” or “a role model” for your grandchildren?

Other examples are that;

1) Google Analytics team has changed the number of people who visited My website. The God told Me “Immense foreigners have visited Your website” But Google Analytics has told the lie to Me “People who visited Your website are less than 50 people per month”. Therefore, think over: If entrepreneurs and self-employs who use the service of Google Analytics think “If Google Analytics lie to us “People who visited our website are not many” the same as the case of Kay so as to trick us to pay for Google Ad, how will we do? How can we trust Google Analytics?”, what will happen to this business section of Google? And

2) The God told Me “Your first e-book “Is Jesus Christ coming?” has been sold on Google Play not less than 1,000,000 downloads” But Google Play told Me “No sale and no income of Your book” As a result, think over: If other writers think “If Google Play does to me the same as Kay, how will I do? Should I sell my book on the platform of Google?” And if many best-selling writers consider this truth and then make up their minds not to sell their best-selling books on the platform of Google but choose to sell their books on platforms which are competitors of Google, after a while, massive new writers consider this truth and do the same as best-selling writers too, what will happen to Google Play?

Have you ever heard “Ordinary people will not remember 10 little goodness you did but only 1 little badness you did they will remember maybe all their lives”? So, just only one lie others can catch you up can make them do not trust you all their lives!

I would like to tell the truths to you all again. Lying is a sin and can become a mortal sin if one starts to lie. If one starts a little lie such as “white lie”, he will gradually be familiar to lying. Sooner or later, he will lie normally. And because naturally, humans decide to conceal their lies, so one who starts to lie to and does not confess his former lie will lie to later again and again to conceal his former lies. Later on, a little lie will become “scores of big lies”. Did you see that the US. Presidents and many generals in the US. Troop do not confess what crimes and felonies they have leaded the US. Government to commit with pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty, so the US. Presidents and the generals made a choice to kill not only Me, The Daughter, but also many American creative people who knew the truths and wanted to help Me and Prince William, so a lie “We never do the same as Kay has told everyone” became mortal sins? Could you notice the case: Just “to lie to” becomes “to kill”? So that, “a sin” (lying) directly became “mortal sins” (killing The Daughter and many American creative people), right?

I usually heard that many doctors need to tell “white lie” to their patients to encourage their patients to live longer. But because of that, patients know “Doctors do not tell us all truths”, so what will happen if patients cannot trust all words of their doctors? I believe that after some doctors tell “the truth” to his patients “Your conditions tell us that the disease grows up not much”, the patients who are pessimists and have heard the truth of “white lie from doctors” decide to deny the result of the examiner and start to talk to themselves “I am passing away soon” Last, several months later, the patients passed over.

Because medical personnel are one of the professions that must be reliable, so My advice for doctors is that you should tell the truth to your patients. If your patient is 4 or 5 stages of cancer, do not conceal him the truth, but encourage him to live longer by pointing him to see how advance of medical technology and medical treatment in the current millennium are, and demonstrating countless cases that other patients have hard conditions the same as him or more than him but they can continue to live many, many years.

Anyway, The God told Me “The Satans and all evil people has enticed the new generation to join the devil’s dirty plan by suggesting them “Working with us and lying to others will help you to get everything which you want. Just dramatize “I am moral and nothing else happen” in front of “the scene” to work for us. So, you can order The God but nobody even your parents will know what you have done.””

Therefore, I would like to question the new generation who followed their suggestion: Why do you think nobody knows that you have work for the Satans and all evil people to order The God? At least, you yourself, an evil person who enticed you, and The God whom you have ordered have known what you have done. And the new generation especially who are Christians and who are Muslims know who The God is. And could you see, in 2000 when The God started opening My mind, how people all over the world thought about the Thai king, the Thai dynasty, all Thai people, and Thailand, but now, how people all over the world think about the Thai king, the Thai dynasty, all Thai people, and Thailand? Could “the drama” and “the scene” help them to pretend to be “the best” forever?

By the way, a truth is that all tricky people usually lie to others. Therefore, if one starts to lie to others, he begins to be “tricky”, right?

One of the beliefs of all Christians is that Satan and devils love to lie to and fool humans, right? One of ten commandments of Christians is do not lie to others, right? Na-bee Mohammad was the most honest in His Own Era, right? One of five basic precepts to be complete humans of Buddhists is do not lie to others, right? And you have observed My natures since 2000, so you have known “Kay never lies to anyone”, right? So, it shows that The God truly wants humans not to lie to others but to be honest, right? ...

... So, why do you still lie to others? Why do not you start to be a creditable person from inside of yourself?
