

My message to Prince William (13 August 2023)

Prince William, sir. Everyone has his own beliefs especially his own religious beliefs.

Prince William, sir. Pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty are the leaders of the Thai soldier drug-selling gang but they are “rulers”. Ratchaneewan Ad-harn and Pongthep Ad-harn are the third from the top of the Thai police drug-selling gang but they are “doctors”. Many Thai people who are in their gangs are drug-sellers but they are “rulers” “soldiers” “polices” “politicians” “doctors” “psychologists” “lawyers” “professors” and “teachers”. These occupations studied psychology. So, they all knew how to use psychology to tempt their targets so as to succeed in their desires.

Prince William, sir. Pimp king Bhumibol deeply studied religious subject when he was a teenager. And as the king of Thailand, pimp king Bhumibol is the royal patronage of all religions in Thailand. Prince William, sir. Thai students study the principles of all religions in primary schools and also junior high schools. I mean that all Thai people who are not illiteracy know the principles of all religions. And Prince William, sir. Many Thai people especially the Thai people who studied psychology also knew how reactions of a man will be if another person talks to him something opposes to his beliefs.

Prince William, sir. If you read many historical books, you will know “In the past, Christians believed “The world is been flat” and “The world is the center of the universe”. Christians who believed contrary with the popular belief would be convicted of sin by a religious court. But in the current millennium, everyone knows “The world is rounded” and “The world is not the center of the universe” Prince William, sir. Another example is that “In the past, humans believed “Thunders and storms are occurred by wrath of The God” But today, everyone knows why there are thunders and storms. As a result, Prince William, sir. It shows that religious beliefs at present can be changed in the future.

Prince William, sir. My Missions are to help, to redeem, and to teach. Two of My Missions Daddy Almighty sent Me to do are that to tell everyone the truths “Many of your religious beliefs are wrong” and to correct the wrong religious beliefs. Prince William, sir. I have tried to tell you how pimp king Bhumibol, the satanic Chakri dynasty, Ratchaneewan Ad-harn, Ad-harn family, and high-level Thai soldiers have fooled you, King Charles, and Prince Harry. Prince William, sir. You are the white who is Christian. The white who is Christian finds a reason the first. Prince William, sir. I mean that reasons that seem to be reliable from “the voice” in that they are in line with your beliefs are not the truths from Daddy Almighty! ...

... Prince William, sir. Could you figure out who else have cheated you the reasons that seem to be reliable as they are in line with your beliefs?

Prince William, sir. You never try firing Kate Middleton, George, Charlotte, and Louis out of the positions and your palace, and never try calling Me directly, why are you sure "I cannot"?

Prince William, sir. My Dad needs an emergency help.

Prince William, sir. I am waiting for calling from you.

Thank you very much, sir.
