Our God told Me “Kay, tremendous foreign people are stubborn. Did You see when You tell them to turn right, they always turn left? Because of that, after You had told them how demonic all Thai people are, they made a decision to try making friend with a Thai (or Thai people) to know “Are all Thai people the same as Kay told us?”

For that reason, because many foreign people do not feel familiar with how excellence in pretence of all Thai people are, so they judged a Thai (or Thai people) whom they have kept relationship with “He is nice!” or “They are nice!” and believed “Kay stereotyped all Thai people!”. So that, some of the foreign people who really believed “A Thai whom I keep relationship is nice” or “Thai people whom I keep relationship are nice” prepared themselves for speaking out instead of the Thai “Kay stereotyped all Thai people!”

So, I would like to request the foreign people to prepare answers for My questions:

- 1) How long have you kept relationship with the Thai?
- 2) How do you know that the Thai has treated you well by his real feelings and real mind? Or how do you know that the Thai have treated you well by their real feelings and real minds? And
- 3) How do you know his real thoughts and real heart? Is he opened his mind to help other people to know his real thoughts and his real heart like Me? Or how do you know their real thoughts and real hearts? Are they opened their minds to help other people to know their real thoughts and real hearts like Me?

I would like foreign people to know that in the end, just a very small group of all Thai people will be allowed to spend their new lives abroad by helping from our God. I mean that almost 100 percentages of all Thai people will be left by their own wickedness to die in wars in Thailand. And because they all have usually mocked Me and My Parents “We cannot help You in that You Yourself were sent to be born in Thailand!” So, after the small group of all Thai people will have been moved out of Thailand and the wars will have been declared, if the Thai who will have been left to die in wars in Thailand request Me for My help, I prepared My answer for answering them “I cannot help you in that You Yourself are Thai!”

By the way, I never approach any wicked people, in that for Me, the wicked can be compared to “solid waste”. Think over: How bad smell of “solid waste” is. And the truths are that if you are near “solid waste”, though you are good smell, other people will smell “bad smell” from “solid waste” near you. And if you spend your time with “solid waste” for so long, what else will happen to you? Did you understand what I would like you to know? ...

... If you still do not understand the comparison, keep watching what will happen to ethical members of innocent royal families who have spent their lives with harlots and/or pimps since the origin at every court of law!
