

My letter to Prime Minister Liz Truss and all British people
(7 October 2022)

Dear Prime Minister Liz Truss and all British people,

I told you “I will not have talked to any politicians until I will be at The Holy Home. As at The Holy Home, The God will tell us who can reform themselves, but who cannot reform themselves”

I told you like that because I have known natures of all Thai people. They support people who are like them to step up on high positions in every country. But before I told you like that, I had forgotten the truths “Pimp king Bhumibol, the satanic Chakri dynasty, and all Thai people are tricky and love to lie to humans. They have strongly wanted to bring all foreigners to be brutally tormented in merciless states with them forever.” And The God told Me many times “Countless foreigners can reform themselves”.

The God recently told Me “Kay, everyone will know who can reform himself or who cannot reform himself by noticing “Your feelings”. The Holy Spirit in Yourself knows the same as when you eat “vegan dishes” that put “meat” as an ingredient. I (The God) mean that if a person who talks to you cannot reform himself, when you talk to him, you will feel so much uncomfortable”

So, because of the truths that I told you earlier, and because one of My natures is that if I do not have full of confidence that this person is evil, I will assume that he is nice. Therefore, I made a new decision.

My new decision is that if the flight lands at London, I will spend the time in London around 1 month and I will talk to British people who will come to see Me including Prime Minister Liz and British politicians. British people whom I will not definitely talk to are only David Cameron, Camilla Parker Bowles, Parker Bowles family, Kate Middleton, Middleton family, Kate’s children, and James Lifford Hewitt. However, after I will have been at The Holy Home, if The God tells Me “David Cameron can reform himself”, I will show My apology by bowing him in front of Media.

I would like to confirm the truths again. Two of the natures of western people and Christians are that they normally do not envy nice people, better people, and successful people, but they habitually admire nice people, better people, and successful people. There are only some western people and some Christians whose natures are like all Thai people. So, before 2000, their countries were developed and civilized. ...

... But one of the disgusting natures of all Thai people is envy. Did you know that one of the Thai teaching words is “You can be nice and/or talent, but do not stand out. If you are nice and/or talent, and stand out too, it will bring troubles and dangers to you!” And a disgusting nature of all Thai people is that they try to change good people and better people to be “the worst” the same as them. So, Thailand is an under-developing country. ...

... Did you know because I have been detained in Thailand, so what have happened to the UK, the US, and all developed countries?

I have been proud of knowing that I am not Thai, and The God chose England to be My motherland 😊😊

Love,
Kay

Anyway, The God told Me “Kay, You have Your fans not only in the UK, but also all over the world. They have been periodically tormented because of being Your fans”. So, I would like My fans to know that in reality, I really want to meet My all fans too. But I do not know how to manage a fan-meeting which the fans will come from all over the world. As a result, if I make you who are one of My fans feel bad, I so much apologize. ... The truths are that You all are very important for Me in that You all are a part of My life who have encouraged Me to have power to continue to live My life and to succeed in My Missions ☺☺.
