

The Last Chance (5) (New)

(2 Pages)

I would like to directly talk to all humans who are not devils, sinners, or wicked people, but they joined the devil's dirty plan.

I came to save you all to survive from brutal torment in merciless states where are called "Hell" and "The Eternal Flame" with the Satans and all evils forever.

They are the Satans and all evils, so they have strong intention to bring all humans to be brutally tormented in merciless states where are called "Hell" and "The Eternal Flame" with them forever, so that they enticed you all to kill me, a Person of the God, and destroy the God's Wills.

Nobody can save you all to survive from violent torment in merciless states where are called "Hell" and "The Eternal Flame" with the Satans and all evils forever but me. If I succeed in suicide or naturally die, who will save you all to survive from brutal torment in merciless states where are called "Hell" and "The Eternal Flame" with the Satans and all evils forever?

I would like to emphasize it again. If I succeed in suicide, or if I naturally die, at the time when I completely die, all humans who are not devils, sinners, or wicked people, but they joined the devil's dirty plan will be immediately taken down to be brutally tormented in merciless states where are called "Hell" and "The Eternal Flame" with the Satans and all evils forever the same as the death of Devadatta monk who tried to kill Buddha. As a result, I would like to question you again. Did you know whom I am still alive for?

I would like to underline it again. Please think twice. I came to save you all to survive from brutal torment in merciless states where are called "Hell" and "The Eternal Flame" with the Satans and all evils forever. Nobody can save you all to survive from violent torment in merciless states where are called "Hell" and "The Eternal Flame" with the Satans and all evils forever but me. If I succeed in suicide, or naturally die, who will save you to survive from merciless states where are called “Hell” and “The Eternal Flame”?

Did you see Our Heavenly Father in this video clip?

Whom you should believe, the Daughter of the God, or the Satans and all evils?
