

Taking history of patients with weight

loss problems

Equipment

1		8
2		9
3		10
4		11
5		12
6		13
7		14

Procedure

0	Symptoms of Sympathetic hyperactivity such as palpitations, trembling hands, excessive sweating, hot flashes, or changes in size of the lump in the neck?
1	lump on the neck moving according to swallowing when sleeping and then suffocating Does the lump hurt? have abnormally bulging eyes
2	Family history of thyroid disease. History of taking thyroid hormone medication
3	History of other diseases that cause weight loss Headache, sweating, fever, or night sweats Chronic cough, nodules, lymph nodes, neck, armpits, groin, breast
4	Irregular bowel movements (bowl habit change) Irregular menstruation Bleeding point or abnormal bleeding when brushing teeth
5	History of risk of HIV infection, joint pain, or photosensitivity rash History of medical conditions such as high blood pressure
6	Introduction and manners during history taking Relevant questioning skills Overall history taking skills
7	Diagnosis Hyperthyroidism Grave's disease

