

Absence of menstruation for 6 months

Equipment

1		8
2		9
3		10
4		11
5		12
6		13
7		14

Procedure

0	greeting the patient and introducing himself Politely ask the patient's name. and ask permission to ask about history
1	History of menstruation before this, pregnancy, childbirth, contraception should be breastfeeding. sex, history of miscarriage
2	Pregnancy symptoms such as an enlarged belly, weight gain, nausea, vomiting, breast engorgement
3	History of severe postpartum hemorrhage history of curettage history of pelvic infection
4	History of milk flow frequent headache blurred vision Unusual weight gain or loss History of abdominal or cervical surgery
5	Unusually more hairy, fatter, palpable, found a lump in the stomach Symptoms of early menopause include hot flashes, irritability, insomnia, dizziness, joint aches and pains.
6	daily life like vigorous exercise or eating behaviors such as eating and having to reach out
7	Congenital diseases (must ask by specifying disease) Diabetes, liver disease, kidney disease, thyroid
8	medications you use regularly (must ask by specifying the drug) oral contraceptives, cancer drugs, steroids, diet pills

