

Report to Investors
For Q3/2015 (April 1 – June 30, 2015)

Review of Q3/2015

- Sales revenue in Q3/2015 was 678.33 million Baht. It was 42.77 million Baht or 6.73% increased when compare to same period of previous year contributed by slow elevation of Thai economy.
- When consider on quarterly basis, there was very little change in automotive industry since the economic still has not recovered and consumers were lack of spending power.
- Nevertheless, new economic stimulation plan could wake the market up in the end of 2015.

Overview

- Net profit in Q3/2015 was 40.15 million Baht. It was 55.32% dropped from 25.85 million Baht of Q3/2014. Such resulted from the increase in sales as well as TSC attempt in controlling expenses in every way.
- The carmakers have scheduled to launch several new models in 2015. Therefore, the export of car and component parts among Asian market should expand.
- Thai auto industry is expected to gradually improve following the recovery of the automotive export which help to push up the demand of automotive parts both domestic and export.
