

IQPodium

PD150

IQPodium with interactive pen helps teachers, trainers and business presenters communicate more effectively during classroom, conference room and lecturing hall, etc. While projecting to a large display, presenters can add notes or illustrations on the IQPodium. It is natural to interact with the audience and easily share ideas, questions and feedback without looking all around.

Keep your eyes on your audience

The IQPodium is the ultimate presentation tool, giving you all the control over the displays behind you while you maintain eye contact with your audience.

Project image with HDMI output

Support HDMI output with plug and play simplicity for projection to the large screen, maximizing visibility and giving you the power to present in bigger spaces.

Point-by-point PCAP and EMR technology handwriting

Adopting PCAP and EMR technology with high accuracy, you can write on anything displayed on the screen by pen or your finger. Write, draw, and annotate over any screen can be achieved, which brings you the experience like you're writing on the real paper.

Instant drafting tablet

The adjustable writing angle empowers the flexibility to adjust the screen to the most comfortable angle for you at any time.
