

CL-28262 CAPTIVE-YOKE TYPE AUXILIARY TON CONTAINER VALVE

These valve provide a dependable shunt-off of gas or liquid at the supply container or in the gas piping between the supply and the chlorinator. Auxiliary ton container valve fabricated from corrosion-resistant material and specially designed for chlorine and/or sulfur dioxide service.

Features

- Suitable for liquid and gas application
- Valve construction and material conform to Chlorine Institute specification
- Attached directly to the valve furnished on cylinder or ton container
- Isolates downstream tubing or piping when changing ton container

