

3 Days 2 Nights Thai Way of Life & Unique Experience

For those who are interested in observing a rural way of life, and location just not far from Bangkok, this program should not be missed. First visit Nakhon Pathom and then to Baan Nong Khao Village, 12 kms. from Kanchanaburi. Appreciate a modest lifestyle of those in an agricultural society in which most members still earn their modest living by plating rice, raising cattle and weaving cloths.

Day 01
Jul 2022 – Oct 2022	BANGKOK – NAKORN PATHOM - KANCHANABURI	(-/L/D)
08:00	Picking up from your hotel in Bangkok and head for Salaya area in Nakhon Pathom.
09:30	Visit a Thai community located by a charming canal in a non-touristic farming area. Start a canal boat trip, visit a lotus farm, orchid garden and rice paddy fields and enjoy making Thai-styled rice crackers and having a taste of it. Learn about agricultural activities, beliefs and local cultures through these interactive activities together with local farmers/residents.
12:00	Lunch will be served at local restaurant in Nakhon Pathom.

13:00	After lunch, leave Nakorn Pathom via Baan Pong for Kanchanaburi
14:30	Arrives in Nong Kao Village, a rural community where located at the suburban of Kanchanaburi. Upon arrival, we start Thai village biking through the rice paddy fields; visiting a fan palm orchard and observe how local people collect their palm products. Try some local products and a variety of tropical fruits regarded the best in the world. Then a demonstration of a ceremony for the Rice Goddess will enhance your understanding of the role the rice plantation has played in Thai farming society. Return to the village along the dirt track cutting through the enchanting rice fields. En route, observe some seasonal activities and pleasant sights of cattle, patches of lotus, sugar cane and corn farms. Enjoy learning how to make sticky-rice crisps with local villagers. Glimpse a cluster of Thai styled houses then earthen pots reflecting the local belief in their ancestral spirit. Take a break and enjoy tea/coffee served with locally produced fan-palm cake, then visit the village weaving center. Hand-woven clothes, bamboo handicrafts and other local products are available for shopping to directly support local producers.
16:30	End of the village biking tour and head back to Kanchanaburi Town
