TOURIST ATTRACTIONS IN AUGUST

Discover five unforgettable destinations across Thailand this August. Experience the excitement of the Nan Traditional Long Boat Racing Festival 2026 and admire the lush green beauty of Pa Bong Piang Rice Terraces in Chiang Mai. Explore the ancient temples of Si Satchanalai Historical Park, enjoy the peaceful wetlands of Thale Noi, Phatthalung, and discover prehistoric paintings with stunning Mekong River views at Pha Taem National Park, Ubon Ratchathani. It is the perfect journey through Thailand's vibrant culture, fascinating history, and breathtaking rainy-season landscapes.

NAN TRADITIONAL LONG BOAT RACING FESTIVAL 2026

Experience the excitement of Nan's famous long boat racing season from August to November 2026. The highlight is the prestigious Royal Trophy Race, held along the Nan River near the Phatthana Phak Nuea Bridge in Mueang Nan District. Visitors can enjoy thrilling competitions featuring beautifully decorated traditional boats and skilled rowing teams from communities across the province. With races taking place at several important venues throughout Nan, the festival offers a wonderful opportunity to experience local culture, community spirit, and an unforgettable riverside atmosphere.

PA BONG PIANG RICE TERRACES A GREEN PARADISE IN CHIANG MAI

Located in Mae Chaem District, Chiang Mai, Pa Bong Piang is one of the most beautiful rice terraces in northern Thailand. During August, the fields become lush and green, covering the mountainsides like a natural carpet. Visitors can enjoy the peaceful atmosphere, fresh mountain air, and breathtaking views of the surrounding valleys. The morning mist and soft evening sunlight create perfect moments for photography. Travellers can also experience the simple lifestyle of the local community and stay in traditional homestays overlooking the rice fields. Pa Bong Piang is an ideal destination for nature lovers, photographers, and anyone seeking a peaceful escape during Thailand's green season.

SI SATCHANALAI HISTORICAL PARK A JOURNEY THROUGH ANCIENT SUKHOTHAI

Located in Sukhothai Province, Si Satchanalai Historical Park invites visitors to discover the beauty and history of Thailand's ancient kingdom. Surrounded by peaceful forests and mountains, the park features magnificent temples and historical ruins, including Wat Chang Lom, Wat Chedi Chet Thaeo, and Wat Nang Phaya. Visitors can explore the area by bicycle while admiring its remarkable architecture and tranquil atmosphere. Recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Si Satchanalai Historical Park is an ideal destination for history lovers, cultural explorers, and anyone seeking a peaceful escape into Thailand's fascinating past.

THALE NOI, PHATTHALUNG A PEACEFUL WETLAND PARADISE

Located in Phatthalung Province, Thale Noi is one of Thailand's most beautiful freshwater wetlands. It is famous for its colourful lotus flowers, rich wildlife, and peaceful natural scenery. Visitors can enjoy a relaxing boat ride while observing water buffaloes, local fishermen, and many species of birds. During August, the surroundings become lush and refreshing, making it an ideal destination for nature lovers and photographers. Thale Noi offers a peaceful escape and a wonderful opportunity to experience the unique culture and traditional way of life in Southern Thailand.

PHA TAEM NATIONAL PARK

UBON RATCHATHANI

Pha Taem National Park: Where Nature Meets Ancient History
Located in Ubon Ratchathani Province, Pha Taem National Park is a natural treasure offering breathtaking views of the Mekong River and a fascinating glimpse into ancient history. Discover prehistoric cliff paintings dating back more than 3,000 years, admire the unique mushroom-shaped rocks of Sao Chaliang, and witness a spectacular sunrise from Pha Chanadai. During August, the forest becomes beautifully lush, seasonal waterfalls flow at their fullest, and colourful wildflowers brighten the rocky landscape—making it a perfect destination for nature lovers, photographers, and cultural explorers alike.

GUIS

Location: 9 Kasem San 2, Pathum Wan, Bangkok.

Opening Hours: Open Wed-Fri, 18:30-22:00 hrs.

GUIS is a trendy Thai fusion restaurant in the Siam/Kasem San area, best known for elevating the traditional Thai khao tom (rice porridge) into a stylish and contemporary dining experience. With its chic, modern interior inspired by a designer home, GUIS offers a cozy yet fashionable atmosphere that is perfect for a casual meal with friends or family.

The menu showcases classic Thai comfort food with a modern touch, featuring signature khao tom served alongside a variety of traditional side dishes. Popular favorites include minced pork with Chinese olives (nam liap), spicy Chinese sausage salad, pickled mustard greens, salted egg, stir-fried morning glory, and crispy pork belly.

Why guests love it:

- Modern take on traditional Thai comfort food
- Stylish and Instagram-worthy dining atmosphere
- Wide selection of authentic Thai side dishes
- Great for casual lunches, dinners, or late-night comfort meals
- Convenient location near Siam and the Jim Thompson area

ELDER BURGER

Location: 2/F, Market Place Thonglor, 323 Thonglor 15, Watthana, Bangkok.

Opening Hours: Open daily, 10.30-22:00 hrs.

Korean craft burger chain Elder Burger opens in Bangkok. While Bangkok never tires of new burger joints, Elder Burger has a pretty good differentiating factor. The award-winning craft burger chain from Seongsu-dong, Seoul, is famous for one big thing: all hamburgers are made by hand, using fresh ingredients, and not a single frozen food. If you don't believe them, you can even see their hydroponic gardens in store.

Highlights on the menu include the bestseller, the Elder Burger, made with truffle peppercorn mayonnaise, maitake mushroom, prime beef patty, and onion jam; or the Chili Cheese Burger, made with Dijon mayonnaise, tomato, beef chili, onion, and cheddar cheese.
