TOURIST ATTRACTION IN AUGUST

When August arrives once again, it marks the midpoint of the rainy season.

The atmosphere of this month is not only filled with the refreshing touch of rain, but also imbued with love and deep bonds, as it coincides with the birthday of the Mother of the Nation. Many take this opportunity to treat their mothers to a special meal or a memorable trip. While the rainy season might make some hesitant to venture out, we recommend heading north to experience the morning mist in August an unforgettable experience.

PHICHIT LONGBOAT RACE

The Phichit Longboat Race Festival 2025 will take place from August 29 to September 7, 2025, at Wat Tha Luang Royal Monastery, along the Nan River, Mueang Phichit District.

Festival Overview

The Phichit Longboat Race has been celebrated since 1907 at Wat Tha Luang. Initially started as a religious and community unifying event, it has since evolved into an annual national-level competition with royal patronage. The festival has been held for over 100 years and is considered one of the most prestigious longboat races in Thailand.

THE "SWING FESTIVAL" OR "AKHA NEW YEAR SWING FESTIVAL"

The "Swing Festival" or "Akha New Year Swing Festival" is a tradition of the Akha (also known as E-Kaw) people. It is held to honor the goddess Um Sa Yae, who is believed to have bestowed fertility and abundance upon crops and plants. The festival is also a celebration of the growth and prosperity of the harvest that is soon to be gathered.

Each community determines the date of the ceremony based on what is considered an auspicious time, in accordance with the approval of the village leaders. Therefore, the festival does not occur on the same day in every village. Generally, the Swing Festival takes place in August and rotates from one Akha village to another. In Akha villages in Chiang Rai province, the "Swing Festival" will be held between August 1 – September 1, 2025.

RAYONG BOTANICAL GARDEN

Rayong Botanical Garden is a new check-in spot in Rayong Province, rich in natural diversity and a wide variety of plant species.

The highlight here is the large floating grass raft, locally known as "Ya Nang Ma" (dogskin grass), and the ancient Samet forest, which gives off a mysterious and adventurous vibe.

So don't wait—come experience the refreshing atmosphere and enjoy all the fun activities the garden has to offer!

Activities available:

- Motorboat ride around the lake
- Kayaking
- Stand-up paddleboarding (SUP)
- Cycling
- Nature trail walks
- Camping / Overnight stay
- Open: 08:30 AM – 04:30 PM.

HIN SAM WAN (THREE WHALE ROCKS)

Pin this truly Unseen destination—Hin Sam Wan (Three Whale Rocks) in Bueng Kan! This famous attraction is located within a protected conservation area that spans the Kala rainforest, Phu Sing forest, and Dong Si Chomphu forest reserves.

The site features three massive rock formations perched dramatically on a cliffside, lined up in a way that resembles a family of whales—a truly awe-inspiring sight. These ancient rocks are estimated to be around 75 million years old.

In addition to their unique shape, the area offers breathtaking panoramic views, especially during the rainy season, when mist often rolls through, creating a magical, otherworldly atmosphere.

100-YEAR BRIDGE IN NAKHON RATCHASIMA

Let's wrap up our list of August travel destinations with a scenic spot — the “100-Year Bridge” in Nakhon Ratchasima. Located in Khok Krachai Village, Khon Buri District, this is a truly Unseen Thailand attraction not to be missed. The wooden bridge stretches approximately 1 kilometer across local rice fields, offering a peaceful atmosphere where the only movement is the gentle swaying of rice stalks in the wind. It's a serene, picturesque location that's perfect for taking stunning photos.

NEW OPENING

KAYAKI

Thailand's First Yakizakana (Grilled Fish in Japanese Style)
KAYAKI is Bangkok's first restaurant dedicated to yakizakana, or Japanese-style grilled fish.

It serves premium sashimi-grade seafood, grilled table-side with precision.

Inspired by yakiniku, the fish is grilled medium-rare—crispy outside, juicy inside.

The focus is on flavor, texture, and natural umami, not raw fish or sushi.

Each piece is cut small and grilled to order, then served with rice and matching condiments.

The restaurant is located in Sukhumvit 49, in a serene Japanese-style garden.

The interior is clean and modern, with a calm, minimalist vibe.

Staff guide diners on how to enjoy each bite for the best experience.

Founded by three siblings, KAYAKI blends hospitality, health-consciousness, and culinary finesse.

It's a fresh and elegant take on seafood—simple, smoky, and satisfying.

Location:

49, 99 Sukhumvit 49, Khlong Tan Nuea, Watthana, Bangkok

Tel.098-864-8295

Meat lovers won't be left out—with prime rib, lamb rack, and killer fries.

The space is industrial-cool, with tiled walls, moody blue lights, and a view of the open kitchen and fresh seafood displays.

Don't skip the chocolate tart—it's a favorite.

Scuba, Earth Ekkamai, 7/1 Sukhumvit 63, Khlong Tan Nuea, Watthana, Bangkok.

Open Mon-Fri 5pm-12am and Sat-Sun 11.30am-12am.

KAO PIAK SEN

opens in Ekkamai for handmade Vietnamese noodles with a modern twist

Founded by a Vietnamese-Thai family from Udon Thani, Kao Piak Sen has grown from a small street food store into a beloved comfort eatery. Centred on the handmade Vietnamese noodles of the same name, Kao Piak Sen has now opened at Ekkamai Corner.

The food: Those who have been to Vietnam may be familiar with the dishes here, and will feel a wave of nostalgia upon tasting. Fresh ingredients and springy, homemade noodles are the signature at Kao Piak Sen, though highlights beyond these include the Vietnamese Rice Rolls (Pak Mor Yuan), Grilled Pork Skewers (Nam Nueang), and Crispy Savoury Pancakes (Banh Xeo). Exclusive to Ekkamai, new specials also include the Dry Pho (Pho Haeng) and Banh Mi Panini Grilled Shrimp with Avocado.

The vibe: A modern cafe ambience makes Kao Piak Sen a quick and casual location to enjoy coffee, lunch, or dinner. The 'raw and refined' concept translates to many natural materials used in the design, with both solo dining and communal tables available. New for the Ekkamai branch is also the addition of a grab-and-go counter where you can pick up Hanoi Egg White Coffee and Banh Mi to-go.

Kao Piak Sen, M/F, Ekkamai Corner Hotel, Sukhumvit Road, Phra Khanong, Bangkok. Open daily, 9am-10pm.
