TOURIST ATTRACTION ON JANUARY

The New Year begins with January, the first month of the year when temperatures drop, making it a time when the entire country of Thailand enjoys cool and pleasant weather. In some areas of the North and on the mountain peaks of the Northeastern region, it can even become quite cold. With such a wonderful atmosphere like this, why wait? Pack your bags and head out to travel at the start of the year. As for where to go in January 2026, we have some great destinations to share with you as follows.

START THE NEW YEAR WITH BLESSINGS

ONE-DAY TRIP TO VISIT 9 TEMPLES

IN BANGKOK

Start the New Year with auspicious blessings on a one-day Bangkok temple-hopping trip, paying homage to 9 sacred temples along the Chao Phraya River. During this holiday, take the opportunity to make merit and pray according to traditional Thai beliefs by visiting the following temples:

Wat Phra Chetuphon Wimon Mangkhalaram Rajwaramahawihan, Wat Arun Ratchawararam Woramahawihan, Wat Rakhang Khositaram Woramahawihan, Wat Amarintharam Worawihan, Wat Suwannaram Ratchaworawihan, Wat Kharuhabodi, Wat Ratchathiwas Ratchaworawihan, Wat Thewarat Kunchorn Worawihan, and Wat Benjamabopid.

Each temple carries its own unique beliefs and blessings, helping to invite good fortune, prosperity, and positive energy for yourself and your family. May this New Year be filled with merit, brightness, and joy throughout the year.

BOR SANG UMBRELLA FESTIVAL CHIANG MAI

✨ Bor Sang Umbrella & Sankhampaeng Handicrafts Festival 2026 ✨

Step into a world of color, culture, and creativity at one of Northern Thailand's most charming festivals. The Bo Sang Umbrella & Sankhampaeng Handicrafts Festival celebrates the centuries-old art of handmade umbrellas and traditional Lanna craftsmanship — an experience you won't want to miss!

 16–18 January 2026

📍 Bor Sang Village, Chiang Mai

WAT CHAN TAWAN TOK PHITSANULOK PROVINCE

An ancient and important temple located in Mueang Phitsanulok District, situated along the banks of the Nan River, directly opposite Wat Chan Tawan Ok. The temple is renowned for its exquisite architecture, especially the Somdej Ong Pathom Grand Viharn, a magnificent golden building. Another highlight is Luang Pho Thong Lai Ma, a large standing Buddha statue in the posture of holding an alms bowl, enshrined at the front area of the temple.

In addition, the wooden bridge connecting Wat Chan Tawan Ok and Wat Chan Tawan Tok is another beautiful scenic spot offering lovely views. The temple grounds are surrounded by a variety of trees, creating a peaceful and serene atmosphere, making it an ideal place to make merit, pay respect to the Buddha, and pray for blessings, especially during the New Year.

SUNFLOWER FIELD AT MANEESORN FARM, KHAO YAI, NAKHON RATCHASIMA

The cool winter breeze arrives along with the vibrant colors of sunflowers, and one place you simply shouldn't miss is the Sunflower Field at Maneesorn Farm in Khao Yai, located not far from Khao Yai National Park. It's an easy and relaxing drive, and wherever you look, you'll be greeted by endless fields glowing bright yellow with cheerful sunflowers.

📍 Maneesorn Farm, Khao Yai, Nakhon Ratchasima

PA SAK CHONLASIT DAM LOPBURI

A relaxed winter getaway near Bangkok that we would like to recommend is Pa Sak Chonlasit Dam in Lopburi. It is another scenic viewpoint with a pleasant atmosphere, ideal for sitting back, enjoying the cool breeze, and taking in the beautiful views during the winter season. Visitors can also take the sightseeing tram along the dam crest, which stretches over 9,720 meters.

The main highlight of visiting here in winter, however, is taking the sightseeing train. Every year during the winter season, from November to January, a special tourist train service operates on the Bangkok – Pa Sak Chonlasit Dam route every Saturday and Sunday. This train is popularly known as the “Floating Train.”

For those who do not want to miss this unique experience, be sure to plan ahead for the 2026 season.

Time : 11:00 - 19:00 hrs.

Venue : Tang Contemporary Art Bangkok

Website : <https://www.tangcontemporary.com/>

Description : People in the modern world exist amid trends, capitalism, and the digital realm, causing familiar anchors of meaning to gradually fade away. Buildings and once-stable structures are dismantled and reconstructed, as if our world were in the midst of an “invisible migration,” where the ground beneath us is no longer solid but instead resembles quicksand formed by trends, fragmented identities, and fleeting attention.

As the solidity of existence slowly dissolves, what emerges in its place is a “sense of being” — a subtle signal of a profound, silent transformation between humanity and the reality we inhabit.
