TOURIST ATTRACTION IN OCTOBER

October in Thailand is a beautiful transition from the rainy season to the cool season, with clear skies, mild temperatures, and vibrant natural scenery. It also aligns with the end of Buddhist Lent, featuring unique festivals and cultural traditions. From misty mountain viewpoints to riverside celebrations, Thailand offers stunning destinations and lively events—perfect for travelers seeking serene escapes or festive experiences during this magical month.

THE ILLUMINATED BOAT PROCESSION FESTIVAL (LAI REUA FAI)

The Illuminated Boat Procession Festival in Nakhon Phanom (locally called Lai Reua Fai or “floating fire boats”) is a spectacular annual cultural and religious event held on the Mekong River in northeastern Thailand.

During the festival, elaborately decorated illuminated boats float majestically along the Mekong River, creating a breathtaking and spectacular scene. The event also features many other engaging activities, such as:

- A ritual dance to pay homage to Phra That Phanom
- The riverside “Pha Laeng” dinner along the Mekong
- Food stalls featuring Nakhon Phanom’s most popular eateries
- Long-boat races for the HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn Trophy
- The Tak Bat Thewo almsgiving ceremony, and more.

This year, the festival will take place from 27 September to 8 October 2025.

THE WAX CASTLE PROCESSION FESTIVAL

SAKON NAKHON PROVINCE

The Wax Castle Procession is an ancient tradition that has been passed down for many years by the people of Sakon Nakhon to pay homage to Phra That Choeng Chum. It is believed to be a merit-making act that ensures a beautiful rebirth in the next life and ascension to a heavenly realm adorned with magnificent castles.

On the 14th day of the waxing moon in the 11th lunar month, a grand procession of elaborately decorated wax castles circles Wat Phra That Choeng Chum Woramahawihan. Visitors can also enjoy many festive activities, such as:

- Royal Cup long-boat races
- Peacock-tail dance competitions on boat prows
- Cheering-squad contests for the boat races
- Bai Sri ceremonial tray contests

This year, the festival will take place October 1–7, 2025 at Ming Mueang Field, Somdet Phra Srinagarindra Park, and Wat Phra That Choeng Chum Woramahawihan in Sakon Nakhon.

LOTUS RECEIVING FESTIVAL (RAP BUA) – SAMUT PRAKAN

The Lotus Receiving Festival (Rap Bua) is a cherished Thai-Mon tradition in Samut Prakan, held at the end of Buddhist Lent. Legend tells of Mon villagers sailing to Bang Phli with music, where locals welcomed them with food and lotus flowers. Over time, the custom evolved from hand-giving to gently tossing lotuses, creating the beautiful practice of “receiving and throwing lotus flowers.” This unique riverside celebration continues today, honoring faith and community across generations

2025 Festival Dates

The Lotus Receiving Festival 2025 will be celebrated from 30 September to 8 October (9 days and 9 nights) at Wat Bang Phli Yai Nai, a Royal Monastery, Samut Prakan Province.

TAK BAT THEWO ALMSGIVING FESTIVAL

Experience the Grand Tak Bat Thewo Almsgiving Festival—Uthai Thani's most spectacular annual merit-making event—returning in full splendor in 2025.

This year's celebration will take place 7–8 October 2025 at Wat Sangkat Rattanakhiri and the nearby Ha Yek Witthayu intersection.

Wat Sangkat Rattanakhiri (Wat Khao Sakae Krang) is a revered temple and a prominent spiritual landmark of Uthai Thani Province. It enshrines Phra Phuttha Mongkhon Saksit, the sacred Buddha image honored as the spiritual guardian of the province.

Each year, at the close of Buddhist Lent, the temple hosts the Tak Bat Thewo almsgiving ceremony—one of the province's most significant traditions. On this auspicious occasion, more than 500 monks descend the 449 steps from the mondop atop Sakae Krang Mountain to the temple courtyard to receive offerings of rice and dry food from devoted worshippers. Thousands of faithful gather to present alms and share in the act of merit-making.

JOIN THIS UNFORGETTABLE CELEBRATION OF FAITH AND COMMUNITY ON 7–8 OCTOBER 2025.

PHU KRADUENG NATIONAL PARK

Phu Kradueng National Park, or Phu Kradueng, in Loei Province is a natural destination perfect for hiking enthusiasts and a top spot to visit in October 2024. It's an ideal place to plan a group trip with friends or enjoy a romantic adventure with a partner.

Reaching the summit requires a hike of about 4–6 hours, passing various points along the way until you arrive at the visitor center. This year, the park announced that it will open for tourism starting 1 October 2025, offering the perfect time to witness the stunning red maple leaves.

The park provides designated camping areas, and visitors are welcome to bring their own tents. Must-see highlights include Pha Lom Sak, Pha Mak Dook, Anodard Pond, Wang Kwang Waterfall, and many other breathtaking natural attractions.

WAT CHALOEM PHRA KIAT

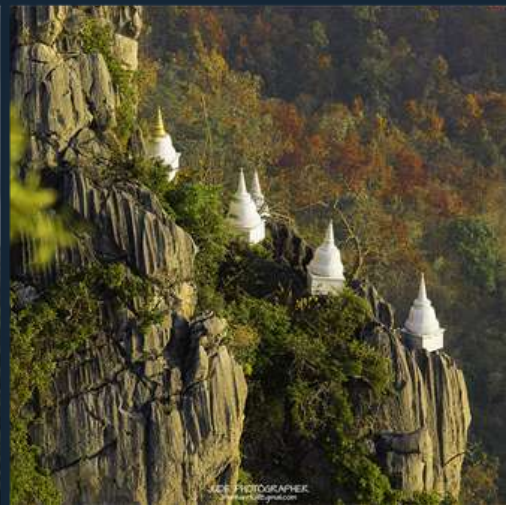

LAMPANG

Wat Chaloem Phra Kiat, Lampang—officially known as Wat Chaloem Phra Kiat Phrachomklao Rachanusorn—is a breathtaking Unseen Thailand destination. Its striking white chedis perch dramatically atop a mountain peak rising 815 meters above sea level, creating a truly unique and awe-inspiring sight.

Visitors need to hike to the summit, but the climb has become much easier since the temple built a new walkway and bridge. The best time to visit is in the late rainy season and early cool season, when the trail is lush and green and you can often witness a dreamy sea of mist enveloping the brilliant white pagodas.

Whether you're a spiritual traveler or a nature lover, this sacred mountain temple promises an unforgettable experience.

PHUKET VEGETARIAN FESTIVAL

📅 "200 Years of Faith ✨ Phuket Vegetarian Festival
A sacred tradition passed down through generations.
Join us for this once-in-a-lifetime cultural experience,
📅 17 21-29 October 2025 — only in Phuket, Thailand!"

The Phuket Vegetarian Festival 2025, also known as the Nine Emperor Gods Festival, is one of the most extraordinary cultural celebrations in Thailand. DISCRIBTION : “If the world is a stage, life is a performance.”

Some play the leading role, some control the lights, but everyone is a “key player” in creating the show. Every element is a living art. Even if you are not in the spotlight, each and every one of us is still an “actor” with an important role to play in our own way.

“Man Man Srinakarin” invites you to experience the world of theater from a different perspective through five rooms, five dimensions, reinterpreting stage performance in new forms of sight, sound, emotion, and imagination—because the story of a performance does not end at the stage.

Artist Ronnachai Kittisaksin transforms porcelain dolls of graceful women into more than mere lifeless decorative objects. Instead, they become characters that convey human emotions. The light cast upon their faces reveals profound expressions—mocking, bitter, furious, or longing—reflecting the pain and confusion born from fragility and shifting emotions, as well as the pride and dignity rooted in inner strength.
