THE MIRACLE OF THE SUN THROUGH 15 DOORWAYS OF PHANOM RUNG

Step into a truly magical experience at Phanom Rung Historical Park, in Chaloem Phra Kiat District, Buriram Province, where nature and ancient wisdom unite in perfect harmony. Here, visitors can witness the breathtaking miracle of the sun aligning through all 15 doorways of Phanom Rung Castle — a phenomenon both rare and auspicious, believed to bring blessings and prosperity to life.

Discover this once-in-a-lifetime sight — a moment where history, culture, and the cosmos converge, revealing the unseen beauty of Buriram.

LAMPHUN SALAK YOM FESTIVAL

Celebrate this ancient Lanna tradition at Wat Phra That Hariphunchai, Lamphun, where towering, colorful Salak Yom trees—crafted by devoted unmarried women—rise over 12 meters high!

This thousand-year-old merit-making ritual honors ancestors, showcases exquisite local craftsmanship, and preserves Lamphun's rich cultural heritage. A must-see for culture lovers and travelers alike!

Wat Phra That Hariphunchai, Lamphun Province

KHAO KHO

PHETCHABUN PROVINCE

Khao Kho is located in Phetchabun Province and is another attractive travel destination, especially during the rainy season, as it enjoys cool weather all year round—even in summer. The average annual temperature is only about 18–25 degrees Celsius.

Khao Kho also offers many places to visit and relax, such as Khao Ya, the location of Phra Tamnak Khao Kho (Khao Kho Royal Palace), Wat Phra That Pha Son Kaew, the Khao Kho Memorial, and many more. In addition, it is one of the best spots to admire the stunning sea of mist and is not too far from Bangkok

DISCOVER CHEOW LAN DAM SURAT THANI BREATHTAKING GEM!

Cheow Lan Dam, the Scenic Jewel of Surat Thani
Cheow Lan Dam, officially called Ratchaprapha Dam, is located in Khao Sok National Park, Surat Thani Province. It is renowned for its vast emerald lake surrounded by dramatic limestone cliffs and lush rainforest.

More than just beautiful scenery, the dam provides major benefits for local communities. It was built to block the Khlong Saeng River and serves multiple purposes: generating electricity, storing water for farming, preventing floods, improving water quality, and supporting freshwater fisheries for local livelihoods.

Highlights You Can't Miss

A must-do activity is a boat trip around the lake to see its iconic spots, especially Khao Sam Kloe (Three Little Rocks). This landmark features three limestone formations resembling Guilin in China, earning it the nickname "Thailand's Guilin".

ARTS

DREAM HACKERS & NEO TOTEMS

Date : 9 Aug 2025 – 8 Sep 2025

Time : 11:00 – 18:00 hrs.

Venue : Joyman Gallery

Website: www.facebook.com/JoymanGallery

This exhibition envisions the artists as Dream Hackers—creators who ‘hack’ into dreams to construct new worlds born of instinct and boundless imagination. Their artworks serve as Totems—representative objects of identity—that act as compasses guiding surreal journeys, liberating and propelling the spirit into adventure, and crafting experiences rich with novelty and interpretive layers.

In today’s context, the meaning of Totem has expanded far beyond its traditional cultural form. It may take shape as characters, mascots, or symbols drawn from games and anime—serving as ‘digital-age totems’ or ‘contemporary totems’ that vividly reflect the identities and values of both creators and audiences.

TO HOLD TO BE HELD

Date : 9 Aug 2025 – 8 Sep 2025

Time : 11:00 – 18:00 hrs.

Venue : Joyman Gallery

Website: www.facebook.com/JoymanGallery

“An exhibition of paintings by artist BYME that reflects the exploration of dual relationships shaping one’s identity—confidence and insecurity, strength and fragility, stubbornness and gentleness—through two characters. These characters are not direct symbols of anyone, but rather mirrors of the inner push and pull within oneself, as well as connections to something that enables one to move forward. It is not about symmetry, but about something that gently sustains us in simplicity—whether it be a person, a memory, or a quiet force of spirit unspoken.”

PEACE IN SOLITUDE

Date : 2 Aug 2025 – 27 Sep 2025

Time : 10:00 – 17:00 hrs.

Venue : Xspace Gallery

Website: www.xspace.gallery

The tranquility that arises from within.

This body of work is a continuation of my previous series, Journey to Tranquility, which explored a personal quest for inner peace through imagined natural landscapes—seas, mountains, skies, trees, and various ecosystems. These elements not only shaped my appreciation for the beauty of nature, but also offered a sanctuary during moments of suffering and introspection.

In this new series, Peace in Solitude, I focus on the experience of arriving at a place of stillness—a state where the mind becomes quiet, calm, and receptive. The work reflects the ongoing process of nurturing this inner peace and cultivating mental clarity through solitude. Nature continues to be my most profound source of inspiration, guiding both subject matter and creative process.

While I continue to use the wet-on-wet technique, I have shifted my approach by working directly with my hands rather than brushes. This tactile method allows water and pigment to flow more organically across the surface, encouraging spontaneity and emotional release. Water-based media has always drawn me for its fluidity and unpredictability, helping me relinquish control and enter a meditative state.
