NUANPORN WECHSUWANARUX

Founder and Director

Having served as a Partner at a prestigious law firm in Thailand, and with a rich background as a corporate secretary and in-house counsel, Nuanporn brings a wealth of leadership experience and legal acumen to the table. Her journey through various roles has honed her ability to guide teams and lawyers across diverse legal practices.

Her track record as a legal advisor includes assisting numerous domestic and multinational clients across a spectrum of industries. Nuanporn has been recognized as a Women Leader. Beyond client work, she had actively contributed to firm management, spearheading initiatives such as knowledge management and lawyer career development programs, and collaborations programs with law schools. She has also been privileged in being speaker and adjunct professor at well-known universities in Thailand. This multifaceted experience has allowed her to cultivate an extensive network of professionals, each possessing unique expertise.

As an in-house lawyer, she gained invaluable commercial insights and developed a deep understanding of what businesses need from team members across different functions.

Fueled by her passion and energy, she is ready to leverage her expertise to benefit both companies seeking top-tier talent and her extensive network of professionals looking for their ideal 'second home'.
